SHINDIGGER[®]

The Ultimate Party and Reservation System by  intercard

The most affordable and user-friendly party and reservation system, brought to you by the amusement industry experts.

A shindig is a party.

Shindigger is how you plan a party.

It's that simple.

Shindigger is a comprehensive, intuitive way to book and manage parties and events so you and your customers have more fun with less worry.

Affordable party software from the amusement industry experts at Intercard. It makes it easy for you and your customers to book parties.

What's Shindigger?

Shindigger makes it easy for you and your customers to book parties, lots of parties, and that's something to celebrate about.

If you operate multiple sites, Shindigger offers your customers the option of choosing the best location for them without leaving your web site. That means fewer abandoned pages and more sales.

In just 5 easy steps your customers can plan their next shindig!

① CHOOSE A LOCATION

② CHOOSE A DAY

③ GUEST COUNT

④ PICK A PARTY PACKAGE

⑤ SELECT A TIME

EASY TO USE

- Hosted remotely, integrates with your existing website.
- Most mobile-friendly reservation system available in the market.
- Customers can plan and book parties at any hour of the day or night. (Which is really important when you're booking a surprise party.)

MOST AFFORDABLE

- At half the price of the competition, Shindigger brings you and your customers the absolute best bang for your buck.
- Includes full-blown redemption inventory control.
- Save as much as $100 a month and hundreds of dollars on the installation. Now that's something to celebrate about!

EASY TO DEPLOY

- 24/7 customer service and support.
- Works with or without Intercard's debit card systems. There's no need to add hardware, software or do any programming. Why? Because Shindigger is a stand-alone, web-based service; you don't need an Intercard debit card system to use it. (And if you do, Shindigger is fully-integrated so it's a snap to do things like issue game cards or handle prize redemption.)
- Customizable to fit your brand.

SECURE & RELIABLE

- Designed by Intercard's technology experts to be as reliable as their industry-leading debit card products.
- PCI compliant so payment transactions are secure.
- It's an enterprise solution so there is no need to consolidate data from multiple sources for your business reports.

Shindigger is the most mobile-friendly reservation system available.

That's important because more and more people are booking everything from movie tickets to airline flights with a mobile device. They want to book a party at your center the same way. Quickly and conveniently, 24/7.
